JEAN STILWELL

mezzo-soprano

Hailed on three continents for her complex portrayal of Carmen, Jean Stilwell is at the forefront of this generation's mezzo-sopranos. Since her first Carmen in Vancouver, Bizet's fascinating gypsy has opened many doors for Ms. Stilwell and she has appeared with the Buxton Festival, New York City Opera, Welsh National Opera, English National Opera, Opera Zuid of Holland, Pittsburgh Opera and all the opera companies of Canada.

In summer 1999, she can be heard performing Dido for Toronto's Opera Atelier in Singapore, and at the Avanti Festival in Finland singing a program of Schoenberg Cabaret Songs.

Ms. Stilwell is internationally renowned for the variety of her repertoire and the 1998/99 season clearly shows the scope of her artistry. Ms. Stilwell began with a career debut: Verdi's enigmatic Princess Elabi in Don Carlo for L'Opera de Montréal. Also on her 98-99 schedule were Beethoven's Symphony No. 9 with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Zigeunerbaron at the National Arts Centre, and her first Santuzza in Cavalleria Rusticana for the Kingston Symphony. She was chosen to headline the new Guelph River Run Arts Centre's vocal series with an inaugural recital in December.

In addition to her triumphs as Carmen, Ms. Stilwell is in demand for a unique array of operatic starring roles including Penelope in Il Ritorno di Ulisse in Patria, Lucretia in The Rape of Lucretia, Charlotte in Werther, the title role in Xerxes, and Mother Marie in Les Dialogues des Carmelites.

In Japan, Ms. Stilwell has appeared for Sony Music Communications in Tokyo and she was Artist-in-Residence for the Takefu International Festival. Her recording of Berio's Folk Songs with the Canadian Chamber Ensemble is available on the CBC SM 5000 label and she is frequently heard on CBC Broadcasts. A CD of Louis Spohr's Sechs Lieder with the Amici Ensemble is scheduled for release this spring.

Peter Tiefenbach is well-known to Canadian radio listeners as the former host of the CBC programmes, The Arts Tonight and Radio Concert Hall. He now has a busy career as a pianist, composer and conductor.

Highlights of his current season include a concerto appearance with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra under Bramwell Tovey, the premiere of his Song for St Celia's Day (commissioned by Chorus Niagara), performances with contralto Maureen Forrester and with soprano/comedienne Mary Lou Fallis. Current commissions include a suite for the Gryphon Trio and a song cycle for mezzo-soprano Jean Stilwell.

Peter lives in Toronto, where he is a faculty member of the Glenn Gould Professional School at the Royal Conservatory of Music.
